Dear Students and Alumni,

Please help us to carry on the YFU tradition of finding new students and host families for next year by committing to present at your high school or other local community events! ! The following Recruitment and Presentation Packet contains information about studying abroad, volunteering, and hosting, which will help you to outline your YFU presentation.

Use this information to promote YFU programs in your school and community. Share your YFU story, talk about study abroad with your friends, tell your teachers about YFU scholarships. Most importantly, encourage a family you know to volunteer and host; they can host for the whole school year, a semester, or for a few weeks as a Welcome Family. YFU would not be possible without dedicated volunteers and host families.

Your work as a student ambassador helps build stronger YFU communities around the world. The relationships you build today are the foundation for YFU's future. Thank you for making a positive difference, for encouraging study abroad, and for promoting hosting and volunteer opportunities with YFU in your local community.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Brian Wiehr', with a stylized, flowing script.

Brian Wiehr

Senior Director of Study Abroad

ABOUT YFU

“What do families and students need to know about the organization?”

- YFU is a global leader in student exchange.
- Families around the world trust YFU because of our strong reputation for quality, high safety standards, and knowledgeable local support network.
- YFU has exchanged over 260,000 students in 70 countries since 1951.
- As a volunteer-based organization, unpaid host families are motivated to participate for all of the right reasons:
 - genuine interest in different cultures
 - confidence in the many benefits of global exchange
 - willingness to build international bonds of friendship.
- YFU staff and volunteers are available to answer questions about study abroad, volunteering, or hosting – from the application process, to on-program support, to post program follow-up.

TELL YOUR YFU STORY

You and your story are interesting! Engage your audience:

- Introduce yourself in your native/foreign language.
- Use a video or powerpoint to create an exciting visual display.
- Share about your culture and explain the big differences.
- Host a “show and tell” featuring (from native countries):
 - Music

STUDY ABROAD AVAILABLE PROGRAMS

“Does YFU have a program to fit my needs and interests?”

BENEFITS OF EXCHANGE

“What lessons will I take from this experience and how will it change my life?”

YFU students gain intercultural understanding, learn mutual respect, and develop a sense of social responsibility

- Develop leadership competencies necessary to meet the challenges and benefit from the opportunities of a fast-changing global community.
- Students learn resilience and independence of thought; program participants are less likely to unquestioningly accept something that someone else tells them.
- A second language; There is no better way to learn a second language than total immersion into a culture – especially when living with a host family.
- Self-reliance, resourcefulness, and confidence; without parents, siblings, teachers, and coaches to fall back on, you have to rely more on yourself.
- It's a profound educational experience; beyond language skills, learn cultural intricacies, which can only be gained through experience – not simply taught in the classroom.

DON'T BE AFRAID TO LEARN A NEW LANGUAGE!

Actors Bradley Cooper and Joseph Gordon-Levitt are both fluent in French. Soccer player David Beckham and actor Will Smith know Spanish while actress Natalie Portman and actor Edward Norton can both speak Japanese.

YFU PROGRAMS

- There are more than 100 outbound programs in 40+ countries on 5 continents.
- Programs include two-week summer short term, summer, semester, or academic year, gap year, volunteer and teach abroad.
- In many countries, students can choose a specialty study program. For example, in Sweden students can study music and dance; in Lithuania, students can attend a basketball academy.
- Though some programs require prior language study, most do not have a language prerequisite.
- All programs and requirements are listed on YFU's website yfuusa.org.

GAP YEAR PROGRAMS

- Gap: a period of study abroad after graduation from high school. (Gap can also be time off during college. Some of our programs accommodate this, although most do not.)
- Students attend high school or college-level classes or can participate in volunteer projects.
- Top colleges and universities encourage gap years.
- For students who are burned-out from a stressful Senior year; Freshman year of college begins with renewed vigor and focus.

“Once I am accepted to college, will I be allowed to defer enrollment?”

- Almost all colleges will approve a gap year if students are participating in a structured educational gap year program.

ENCOURAGING GAP YEAR PROGRAMS

- The Dean of Admissions at Middlebury College observed that the average GPA for Middlebury students who had taken a gap year was consistently higher than those who had not.
- Harvard University’s acceptance letter actually encourages students to consider deferring admission to take a gap year. According to Harvard’s website, each year 50-70 students take advantage of this option.
- Princeton University has its Bridge Year Program.
- The University of North Carolina - Chapel Hill has a Global Gap Year Fellowship program.

APPLICATION PROCESS

“How easy is it to apply?”

- Begin an online application at yfuusa.org.
- The application does not have to be completed all at once. Save your progress and submit when ready.
- Essay questions vary by program and scholarships.
- Admissions Counselors are available to walk you through the process should you have any questions.
- Most scholarship deadlines fall between December and February.
- Regular applications for summer departure are due April 1. Spring Semester and Winter Departure applications are due October 1.
- All applicants are interviewed by a member of the YFU community.
- Submitted scholarship applications are reviewed by a volunteer panel of evaluators.

TUITION

“Where are the dollars going?”

- Program costs are itemized by country and program. General program pricing and total cost is available at yfuusa.org/studyabroad.
- Tuition costs vary from program to program and include:
 - airfare (domestic and international)
 - orientations
 - language training (some countries)
 - background screening of host families (standard YFU practice)
 - student insurance (some countries)
 - school enrollment (semester/year long programs)
 - group round-trip domestic orientation in early July (semester/year long programs)
 - special activities (trips or classes for some programs)
- YFU Admissions Counselors are available to speak with you about fundraising opportunities and any other questions you may have about covering tuition.

SCHOLARSHIPS

“Do I qualify for a YFU scholarship?”

- YFU offers $1.6 million scholarships to American students each year funded by corporations, governments, foundations, and individuals.
- Students are encouraged to apply for multiple scholarships; complete information is available on the website at yfuusa.org.
- There is no additional cost to apply for multiple scholarships.

“My year in Denmark was remarkable and completely changed my perception of the world, for which I’ll always be grateful. I learned as much there as I have in four years of college.”

- Megan, Year-long YFU exchange to Denmark

FUNDRAISING

- Tuition covers most expenses during your program – orientation, travel, housing, food and support. Plan on extra spending money for unexpected costs, souvenirs, visas, school fees and residence permit expenses in some countries.
- Apply for multiple scholarships to increase award chances.
- YFU Admissions Counselors are available to discuss creative ways to fund your program abroad.
- Speak directly with your Admissions Counselor about fundraising ideas or request a copy of the YFU Fundraising Guidelines by sending an email to admissions@yfu.org or calling 1.800.TEENAGE. To view the YFU Fundraising Guidelines online, please visit bit.ly/YFUFundraisingGuide.

SCHOOL CREDIT

- Speak with the school counselor about earning credit while abroad.
- While abroad, maintain contact with the school counselor – keep him/her posted on academic coursework.
- Keep all graded assignments and syllabi.
- US students should ask international teachers for recommendations.
- YFU has resources to help. Email your Admissions Counselor at admissions@yfu.org.

EXPERIENCE A FOREIGN CLASSROOM!

Finnish students start going to school a year later than American kids, and they do less homework on average. Standardized tests are rare, and yet, in 2006, Finnish teenagers ranked first in math and science among 30 OECD countries.

BEYOND EXCHANGE

YFU programs strengthen your college application. Ask any college admissions office!

Studying abroad not only opens the world to students, it also enhances college applications and future job opportunities. In the college application process, your time abroad is best reflected through analysis and appreciation. Share how your YFU experience changed you for the better. Highlight your knowledge and experiences in a meaningful way.

CAREERS

At its core, YFU is a catalyst for positive global change and person to person diplomacy, making cultural exchanges increasingly valuable in our interconnected world. US President Barack Obama even agrees. In 2014, global conversations amongst world leaders have highlighted the need to focus on educational exchanges. Including a new program announced by President Obama and Japanese Prime Minister Abe, which aims to double the number of youth exchanges between Japan and the US by 2020; a speech from First Lady Michelle Obama to American and Chinese students on the importance of studying abroad; and during a bilateral meeting between President Obama and President Mujica of Uruguay, the leaders expressed aligned interests in further expanding student exchange opportunities.

Exchange allows participants to experience tremendous personal growth, and at the same time, the impressions made by the students themselves as well as the broadened perspectives of host families ripple through schools and across entire communities and this reenergized focus on intercultural education opportunities couldn't come at a better time. We know that personal opinions ultimately change public opinion; public opinion influences elected officials who draft public policy which informs international diplomacy. What starts with a single person, over time, influences nations. Through cultural exchange, YFU is able to act a catalyst for positive global change by helping to humanize diplomacy, taking it beyond the public face of protocol, policy, and politics, and allowing for powerful interpersonal experiences.

VOLUNTEERING

YFU USA is a volunteer-based organization. Volunteering with YFU USA opens the door to rewarding experiences and great benefits. YFU volunteers are the vital link between students, families and the YFU network worldwide – providing a safety net of support.

- Directly impact the lives of teenagers from the US and over 60 other countries.
- Be exposed to foreign cultures and have an opportunity to share your own culture.
- Broaden awareness of yourself, your community, the US and the world.
- Aid your community in broadening their cultural awareness.
- Receive enhanced training in areas such as leadership, listening skills and conflict resolution.
- Learn more about yourself!

Opportunities with YFU

As a YFU USA volunteer, you can choose from a number of opportunities to suit your interests, needs and schedule. YFU volunteers can conduct student orientations, make community presentations, problem-solve with international students and their host families and/or arrange social activities.

“My reason for volunteering was to say thank you to the people who have been kind to us in our travels. An added bonus is that working with YFU has qualified me for a challenging new job!”

- Judy, YFU USA Volunteer

HOSTING

“How can my family here in the U.S. share in the unique, international experience?”

Hosting a YFU student is a chance to share your story, your traditions, and your customs while learning about others. Your ordinary life is extraordinary to an exchange student.

- Hosting opportunities are long or short term. Serve as a welcome (6-12 weeks) or temporary family for students in-between permanent placements.
- International students come from one of over 60 countries and attend a local high school for an academic year or semester. International students bring their own spending money and insurance and live according to their host family rules.
- In the true spirit of exchange, U.S. families are encouraged to host while their American teen studies abroad.
- Host families are eligible to receive a $1000 scholarship towards Study Abroad tuition.
- If you are interested in having a host brother or sister – call YFU (1.800.TEENAGE) to start the conversation.

EDUCATORS

“How can I help promote international exchange in my classroom?”

Teachers know the YFU experience is an education unto itself – helping students...

- Develop effective learning habits
- Prepare for intensive studies in higher education
- Hone cross-cultural communication skills
- Better understand themselves and their world

Educators and parents take comfort in YFU’s comprehensive support structure – SAFETY IS ALWAYS YFU’S TOP PRIORITY!

Educators can nominate students to represent their school, community and country abroad. Nomination forms and additional information are available at: yfuusa.org/resources.

YFU USA is the only U.S. exchange organization to receive Full Listing in three CSIET listing categories: Inbound Long-term, Outbound Long-term and Outbound Short-term programs.
