Individual Media Release

By clicking the box next to I grant YFU permission to use my YFU story to promote global exchange. I grant Youth For Understanding USA, Inc. (YFU) and its authorized agents the irrevocable right to use my name, photographs, voice, videos, photos, written statements and similar materials involving me for informational, publicity, or promotional purposes without prior notification. I understand that these materials may appear in printed or electronic materials published by YFU. I agree to hold YFU harmless from all claims related to YFU's or its agents' use of these materials for these purposes. I also agree that YFU is under no obligation to me or any other party to use this material. By clicking the box next to I grant YFU permission to edit and use my submission to promote global exchange as submitted in this YFU submission form, I represent that I have read and fully understand this "Individual Media Release" form. I understand that if I am under 18 years of age YFU USA will contact my legal parent/ guardian to sign a release electronically as well.

The Individual Media Release may be given electronically and does not require a written signature. If a parent or guardian's signature is required, they will submit consent through an electronic release sent to them by YFU USA. Please note the parent/guardian release must come from student's natural parents rather than host parents.
